WASHINGTON.

Judge Cox's Conduct in the Guiteau Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—One of the most eminent American jurists says, commenting on the Guiteau trial, that Judge Cox has acted throughout with admirable caution and discretion. His constructions of the law in his decisions of yesterday, this jurist thought, were exactly right, and would stand as a useful precedent. Mr. Scoville's management of the defence was, he said, deserving of high praise, and would henceforth give him a leading position at the Bar, and no doubt a lucrative practice in Chicago. To all intents and purposes he had conducted the defence alone, for Mr. Reed came in at such a time and in such circumstances that he had been of small benefit.

Lieut. Flipper.

The papers in the Flipper (colored lieutenant) court-martial case have been received at the War Department. From the fact that they have been received here, army officers are of opinion that the verdict of the court-martial was dismissal. The record is very voluminous.

Notes.

Dr. Jeffrey of Boston is to be given a hearing by the House Naval Committee on the subject of color blindness.

Gen. Grant has written a letter to a senator asking that his name be withdrawn from the list of corporators of the proposed Nicaragua canal company.

Serious dissensions of a personal character among the members of the ways and means committees are already reported. The prospect is that the life of the present committee will be one perpetual quarrel, which will virtually destroy its usefulness.

The Democrats made such scanty appropriations for the public service last year that there will be a deficiency of $50,000 in the appropriation for the payment of the present number of clerks in the Pension Office, which is only 761. It will be necessary to have the additional appropriation or to cut down the force, and thus restrict the payment of pensions instead of facilitating them.

A delegation of Kentuckians called upon President Arthur today in the interest of Gen. Burbridge for a foreign mission.

Miss Nellie Arthur, daughter of the President, gave a dinner party at the White House, yesterday afternoon, to a number of her young friends.

There will be another call of bonds, extended sixes, in a few days, probably tomorrow. The amount of the bonds and date of payment have not yet been definitely determined upon.

The House committee on education and labor today appointed Representatives Page, Carpenter and Willis as its sub-committee on Chinese emigration, and referred to them all bills thus far introduced in the House on that subject.

Notice is given by the Light House Board that on and after February 10, 1882, a fixed red light, of the fourth order, will be exhibited from the light-house recently constructed on Harbor Ledge, Stamford Harbor, Connecticut. The apparatus lights the entire horizon, and the focal plane is 60 feet above mean low water. The light should be seen, in clear weather, from the deck of a vessel fifteen feet above the sea, 13½ nautical miles.

News from the Rodgers.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Master Putman, in a letter printed here relating to the incidents of the Rodgers's search for the Jeannette, says he expects the Rodgers will be in San Francisco by October, 1882. On August 29, 1881, they had lost sight of the Strelock. On September 14 he writes:—"We have surveyed Wrangell Land, and are now about to start north, looking for more land, where the Jeannette may possibly be found."

On September 27 he writes that their work for the year was about finished, and they were going to St. Lawrence Bay to winter. He refers to a party to be left at Cape North, in Siberia, to make sledge journeys along the coast. It was Putman himself who subsequently was left in charge of this party.

THE JEANNETTE'S BOAT.

How the Story of the Corpses and Spoons Originated.—Narrative of Capt. Gifford of New Redford.

NEW BEDFORD, Jan. 11.—Captain David L. Gifford, late commander of the wrecked Daniel Webster, the person referred to by M. Soulkowski, in a recent despatch from Irkoutsk, concerning the Jeannette, was interviewed at his home in Dartmouth, today, and from him were gained the following particulars:—Early in July, while at Point Barrow, the steward of the Daniel Webster told Captain Gifford that an old Esquimaux had recently taken up residence with one of the locals, and that he told the story of the vessel which was crushed in the ice some time previous, Gifford visited the man shortly after, when the Esquimaux conveyed to him, by aid of signs, that far away to the eastward the vessel had been crushed in the ice and that four men were either sick or dead; with his limited knowledge of the language, Gifford was unable to learn which. After the Daniel Webster had been crushed in the ice, Gifford travelled to Point Belcher, where he joined bark Cond, and was afterwards transferred to schooner R. B. Handy, of San Francisco. On the way down, the schooner stopped at Providence bay, commonly known by whalemen as St. Lawrence bay, for wood and provisions. This was about the first of the month of August. The Russian corvette Strelock, with the Bremen expedition on board, had arrived in the bay about forty-eight hours before, and was awaiting the arrival of the Rodgers, which was expected daily. A number of the officers of the corvette boarded the schooner, and to one of them who understood the English language, Capt. Gifford told the story given to him, as related above. Gifford suggested to the officer that the unfortunate vessel might be the Jeannette, but he denies having told him personally he had seen a boat containing corpses. Neither did he tell the officer he had seen silver spoons and other articles marked "Jeannette." Capt. Gifford cannot conceive how such a misunderstanding could have occurred, as he was very explicit in the matter, taking pains to reproduce as nearly as possible the signs made by the Esquimaux. The officer translated Gifford's words into Russian, and one of his companions wrote out the interview in his native language. Capt. Gifford thinks the erroneous statement attributed to him may have been caused by the fact that the schooner sailed before the arrival of the Rodgers, and left the Strelock at anchor in the bay.

FOREIGN.

The German Situation.

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—In the Reichstag today, Herr Fundthest introduced his motion abrogating the law forbidding the exercise of ecclesiastical functions without government authorization. Prof. Virchow, in the name of the majority of the Progressists, supported it, and asked the representatives of the Bundsrath to state their views. Herr Von Boettticher, Imperial Secretary of State for the Interior, replied if the Emperor should assent to the introduction of a measure such as nobody last year could have anticipated, it should be received with thanks and reverence.

A French Duel.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Two young lieutenants, named Aubertin and Audemard, have fought a brutal duel with revolvers, at Sargon, Cochin China. Lieut. Aubertin was shot through the body.

Famine in Tunis.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The St. James Gazette gives prominence to a report that a famine is imminent in Tunis.

Rome and the Pope.

ROME, Jan. 11.—At a banquet given in honor of veteran soldiers, the Mayor of Rome declared that the people of Rome would rather see the city laid in ashes than again be subjected to Papal domination.

The Difficulty in Egypt.

ALEXANDRIA, Jan. 11.—The officers of the army have sent the Minister of War to Cherif Pasha to represent to him the bad impression produced by the Anglo-French note.

DR. FRAZIER'S ROOT BITTERS.

The above wonderful medicine is, as its name indicates, strictly a Bitters or Blood Cleanser, made from roots, combined with herbs and plants, such as are found in Nature's garden. I first used Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters myself for weakness of the lungs, catarrh and scrofula in the system, which broke out in pimples and blotches, and after doctoring with physicians and trying advertised medicines (including Sarsaparilla) without finding relief my discovery effected a complete cure. Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram shop whiskey beverage, but are strictly medical in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity. For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as ever I did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest of blessings. MRS. M. MARTIN, Cleveland, O.

REPORT OF THE FISH COMMISSIONERS.

The Fish Commissioners have submitted their sixteenth annual report. Up to the present time but few of the annual returns required from the lessees of ponds have been received, and therefore no accurate statement can be made of the catch of the past season. The complaint in most cases is, not of scarcity of fish, but that the black bass, so generally introduced into the leased ponds, cannot be caught. They appear to be plenty but will not take bait.

The amount of spawn received from Grand Lake Stream was 310,000. The spawn arrived in good condition, and was hatched with a loss of less than 7 per cent.; but the bulk of it came so late that it was the middle of June before the young fry were large enough to distribute, and then they were not as strong as those hatched earlier.

Massachusetts' share of spawn from the Bucksport establishment was 220,000. Of this number 50,000 were received at the state hatching house, Winchester, from which about 47,000 young fish were hatched and deposited in the headwaters of the Nashua river. The balance, 170,000, were forwarded to Plymouth, N. H. This, with the portion due that state, together with spawn taken at the Plymouth works, swelled the amount to 419,000 eggs, from which 411,000 fish were obtained and deposited in the headwaters of the Merrimac. Notwithstanding the depredations committed on the river in 1880, and the autumn drouth of last year, the run of salmon has been much larger than in any previous season, since the river was reopened.

The report also contains an interesting account of the number and kind of fish passing through some of the fishways, the reports of the deputy commissioners on the violations of the law upon the Merrimac and Connecticut rivers, the legislation in regard to fisheries, &c. A letter of Prof. Baird, of the United States Fish Commission, favoring a proposed station of that body at Wood's Hole, is also given. At such station it is proposed to put up the necessary piers, wharves and all machinery necessary for hatching out sea fish on a very large scale.

The returns from weirs, sea seines and gill-nets show a decrease in their catch for 1880, of one-half sea herring, small of flounders, nearly complete of menhaden, and small of both bluefish and eels. The catch of shad nearly doubled, and that of mackerel and scup nearly trebled. The shad fishing in Taunton held its own, but that of the Connecticut jumped from 7727 in 1880 to 38,382 in 1881, and would have been larger had not floating logs hindered the nets. This fine run was due in part to the high water enabling the shad to push up past obstacles like the Enfield, Ct., dam, etc. The shad fishery off the Merrimac river is almost at an end.

PATTI IN HIDE AND SEEK.

Adelina Patti is almost an American, although she was born in Spain. She came to America when she was five years old, and remained until she had reached her seventeenth year. On her arrival in this country her brother-in-law, Maurice Strakosch, recognized her wonderful talent, and placed her under careful training. A charming incident is related of her phenomenal singing, while she was still a mere baby. Madame Albini had heard a great deal about Adelina, and expressed a great desire to hear her. The child consented to sing, on the condition that Madame Albini should first have a game of hide and seek with her. Albini consented, and at once Adelina disappeared, and was found underneath a bed choking with laughter. Albini could not possibly squeeze her large frame under the bed in pursuit, so she established a siege, and refused to allow the child to come out, till she had sung for her. And it was in that uncomfortable position, that Patti, for the first time in her life, sung the entire aria from Sommambula. Albini heard her with the most intense astonishment, and as the last note died away, she clasped the child in her arms, exclaiming:—"Ah! my dear, the day will come, when you will make the world forget us all."—[Cor. Hudson Register.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS AND THE NEWPORT JOURNAL.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon (Sundays excepted), at the News building, 137 Thames street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, and a complete and comprehensive summary of news,—local and general. The Journal is a large 36 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from the city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The DailyNews, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $2 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the whole year is paid strictly in advance. These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines, or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business, are guaranteed but five insertions in a week and are allowed twenty-five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

The News has four steam presses and is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Newport Daily News.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1882.

Did not Mr. Sam Ward make a mistake in selecting lilies of the valley as tokens at his dinner to Oscar Wilde last night? Lilies of the valley are not lank.

Seventy-two million bushels of grain went from America to Europe last year, and not a single bushel was carried in an American ship. Comment is unnecessary.

The attendance at the public schools of New York fell off 10,000 last year. So says Governor Cornell in his message just presented to the people of that state. If this be so why is it so?

The "Christian Army" in Chicago, with Bishop Fallows of the Reformed Episcopal Church as its "general in chief" and public processions headed by a drum corps, may be magnificent from the Chicago point of view, but it is not religion.

Everybody is praising Governor Long of Massachusetts for his judicial appointments. One of them, Caleb Blodgett, a new superior judge, is a Democrat, but all agree that he is an excellent lawyer. He has a brother on the Supreme Bench in New Hampshire.

The Graphic inhospitably devotes a page to savage caricatures of Oscar Wilde, and beneath them puts this legend:—

"Conceive me if you can
A pallid and thin young man,
A crotchety, cranked young man,
A greenery-yallery, Chickering gallery
Dollar and a half young man."

A woman has been fined five pounds and costs, in Liverpool, for letting a house which had been tenanted by a family in which there had been scarlatina, but which had not been properly disinfected afterwards. We hope that this question may be soon tested, in the same way, in Newport.

If Guiteau is hanged, of which there seems now a very good chance—on that day it would be well if there could be bonfires made in every hamlet, town and city in the country of every scrap of printing in any way mentioning his name, that it might as much as possible perish from the earth.—[Boston Transcript.

Connecticut has 225,335 saving-bank depositors out of a total population of 622,700, being one in every 2.7. It is claimed that in this respect the records of Massachusetts, one in every three, of Rhode Island one in every 2.5, and of Connecticut, are a better showing than that of any other three states in the Union.

The Sanitary Engineer says:—"The attention of those disposed to listen to the anti-vaccinationists is called to the daily press despatches, showing the wide spread of small-pox in this country, and the postal authorities are now appealed to, to take measures to prevent the spread of the scourge by means of mail matter. It is time people should cease quarreling over measures of precaution, and should diligently act on the advice of those who have the facts and figures to sustain their recommendations."

The counsel for Guiteau are now supplying testimony for the newspapers, having in their methods practically transferred the case from the jury to this new tribunal. It is, to say the least, a curious outgrowth of a murder trial. New witnesses are almost daily introduced to the public, as if something could be gained for the miserable wretch by this new procedure. The whole affair has partaken of the nature of a farce, and this last feature is in keeping with what has preceded it.

The German Emperor is to transfer the scepter to the hands of his son, as Regent, on his 85th birthday, the 22d of next March. It is rather mean on the part of the aged Kaiser to get himself into such a scrape as the recent rescript has brought about, and then turn tail and let the Crown Prince have all the trouble. The Crown Prince is not understood to be a very great man or a very self-assertive man, but Bismarck will doubtless take good care of him unless a revolution should supervene.

The queer story about the $1400 clerk whom Postmaster General James is said to have kept constantly at work clipping complimentary notices from the papers follows the introduction into the House by Neal, of Ohio, of a resolution calling on the Postoffice Department for information regarding the number of removals, promotions and appointments made in the department since the 4th of last March. The enemies of Mr. James claim that he was a very poor civil service reformer, and that such an inquiry would prove the fact. All those attacks are very suspicious, as Mr. James's vigorous prosecution of thieves of all sorts in the Department made him many enemies, who strive to "get even" with him by starting stories prejudicial to his character. The unassailable integrity which he showed in the administration of the New York postoffice is a good proof of Mr. James's character. He would not be likely to change so suddenly into a corrupt manager in the Postoffice Department.

In the Senate yesterday numerous petitions were presented for an amendment to the constitution to prohibit the manufacture and sale or alcoholic liquors. Mr. Anthony gave notice that on the 19th he would submit resolutions of respect to the late Senator A. E. Burnside. Messrs. Lapham, Anthony, Ferry, Blair, George, Jackson and Fair were appointed a special committee on the rights of women. The Sherman funding bill was opposed by Mr. Vest and defended by Mr. Sherman. In the House a resolution to inquire into the expediency of providing a new means of appointing committees was referred to the Committee on Rules. A resolution was adopted calling on the Postmaster General for information regarding the disposition of the Star routes since March 4 last. Mr. Robeson offered a joint resolution to restore to the public domain the public lands granted to a large number of railroads and forfeited under the law.

The usual attitude of our government toward deserving Indians is illustrated in the case of the Omaha tribe. The Indian Bureau, as is known, has been for some time striving to persuade the Indians to occupy their lands in severalty and cultivate them as farms. This is precisely what the Omaha tribe has done for the past five years, and its members are now desirous of obtaining clear individual titles to the parcels of land they occupy. The government has specifically bound itself in its treaty with the Omahas to give them titles to their lands as soon as they should demand them. They have repeatedly demanded titles, but the government has not granted them, and Congress has shown not the slightest disposition to do so. Mr. Dawes, who did good work, in spite of ridicule, for the Poncas, has taken up the cause of the Omahas, and made an appeal to the Senate in their behalf yesterday.

The lands granted by the Government to certain railroads, and forfeited by them through non-compliance with their contracts, are a magnificent domain. The Northern Pacific alone has forfeited 47,000,000 acres, the Texas Pacific 18,000,000 and the Atlantic and Pacific (the continuation of the Southern Pacific) 42,000,000. There are twenty companies besides these which have lapsed land grants. It is necessary to pass an act of Congress in order to restore these lands to the public domain, and a bill to do this was yesterday introduced. There will doubtless be a strong fight made against the bill by the Pacific railroad companies. They claim that nothing less than an act of God, otherwise the panic of 1873, prevented them from fulfilling their contracts, and they think that their present activity in building their lines entitles them to a renewal of the grants. After all that has been done for the Union and Central Pacific companies, this demand would seem to be reasonable.

The story is told that at a certain party in London not long ago there were present, among others, the Prince of Wales, Oscar Wilde and Arthur Sullivan. The Prince asked for the "greenery-yallery, Grosvenor gallery" song, and Mr. Sullivan went to the piano and played and sang it. Wilde remained standing by the mantelpiece, and was of course the center of the company's gaze, which he bore quietly. When the song and the applause were finished, Wilde approached the Prince and said, "Sir, you are the only man in England before whom that song could have been sung this evening," and, bowing profoundly, took his leave. This is good enough to be true, but it is to be feared that it isn't true. The man who could go and see himself burlesqued with such apparent zest as Wilde did in "Patience" the other night, and afterward speak in a public lecture of his friendship for the authors of this burlesque, would not, it would seem, be sufficiently sensitive to make such a display of his offended dignity. People in this country who have a sneaking fondness for the "greenery-yallery" business would like to see its chief apostle a little less fond of the advertising that comes with ridicule. They rather resent Mr. Wilde's hiring himself out under the same management as a sort of side-show to "Patience."

WRECKED.

A FISHING SCHOONER SINKS OFF HOPE ISLAND.

About 12 o'clock, Tuesday night, the fishing schooner St. Peter went ashore on Hope island during a blinding snow storm. Soon after sinking she slid off and sank in shoal water. The crew, ten in all, had time to jump into two dories, saving only what they had on their backs. They reached Hope island, and passed the night in the unoccupied residence of H. B. Aylesworth, of Providence. Wednesday morning it was found the schooner, with a large cargo of cod and haddock, and all the effects of the crew, was a total loss. She was hull under, and the water reached half-way to her tops. The crew again took to their dories, and reached Warwick Neck lighthouse. Here they were warmed and fed, and then they pulled off to the schooner Herbert Dennison. Off Sabin's Point the Dennison became becalmed, and the men from the St. Peter were transferred to the tug Delevan Peck and taken to Providence immediately.

The St. Peter was valued at $1,200, and was owned by James O'Donald and Barbara Nun, of Boston. The wrecked vessel had 10,000 pounds of fish in the hold at the time of the accident. The names of the crew are:—John Foley, Bartley Fahy, Martin O'Donnell, Eugene Meagher, James McDonald, John McDonald, Patrick Donahue, Patrick O'Neil, James McNamara. All the shipwrecked sailors, including the captain, belong in or near Boston.

A fifth of the population of Paterson N. J., or 10,000 consist of the girls who work in the factories there.

At the present time the officers do not feel like taking any steps which will redound to their discomfort either now or in the future.

Wilson, of Philadelphia, for $1800. Also to Dr. John Marshall, of the University of Pennsylvania, a site south of the above, containing one and fourteen hundredths acres at the rate of $1400 per acre.

—The Newport correspondent of the Providence Star says:—Two rival sewing machine agents met by chance in a house in this city Tuesday. They glowered at each other as they might have done had each been a cannibal and hungry for a choice slice from the other's carcass. After a few rigid words of politeness, one of them withdrew, while the other staid the whole afternoon and held the fort, fearing that his competitor might take it into his head to return and renew the contest.

—Steamer Whatcheer is undergoing extensive repairs at the Continental wharf, in this city. She has received new guard pieces, two coats of paint, and the smoke stack has been rebuilt and re-angleironed. The work has been done under Capt. N. F. Hallett's supervision. The City of Newport has also been put in splendid shape for winter service, steam radiators having been put on the saloon and main decks, and a smoking room fitted for gentlemen up stairs. The Bay Queen is being put in readiness for next summer, and the Day Star is receiving a great deal of attention, the boilers being rebuilt and the steamer generally being put in a condition of newness, which the public will fully appreciate the coming season.—[Prov. Press.

AN EXAMPLE THAT SHOULD BE FOLLOWED.—A gentleman of this city decided a day or two since that it was his duty, both to the city and to his family, to have the latter revaccinated. His wife desired the maid servant to undergo the same slight operation, in common with the other members of the household, for their as well as for her own protection. She positively refused; and for this reason, although she would otherwise have been retained indefinitely, she was at once discharged. We commend the above as the course to be pursued, under similar circumstances, by all who value the safety of their children.

For various reasons the Christmas festival for the members of St. Mary's school was postponed until yesterday afternoon when it was held in St. Mary's hall. About 600 children were present and greatly enjoyed themselves. Four large and well proportioned trees were in the hall and their branches were loaded with presents. Rev. Dr. Grace and Father Dolan were present and Dr. Grace made an address to the children. The gifts were secured and all the arrangements were made by Mrs. J. Lafarge, Mrs. Fury, wife of Paymaster Fury of the navy, and several other ladies who deserve great credit for the success of the entertainment, it being no easy task to find suitable presents for so many.

THE FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The plans for the repairs of the First Methodist Episcopal Church will include the placing of the organ and choir at the north end of the church behind and a little above the minister's desk. Entrance to the choir or the preacher's platform may be had from a stairway at the rear of the audience room, leading from the chapel or from the outside entrance at the side of the building. The floor of the present choir gallery will be dropped to the level of the main audience room and the place will be filled with pews thus gaining twelve over the plan as at first proposed. The new pews at the rear will be slightly raised above those in the body of the church and will be very desirable. Workmen are now raising the floor of the audience room, preparing for new partitions, etc. Mr. Silloway, the architect, was in town yesterday in conference with the building committee, and work is to be pushed to the utmost. The organ has been taken down and the damaged parts will be sent to the factory.

A Washington despatch to the Boston Journal says:—The House committee on public buildings and grounds settled Monday the important question of who shall keep the House restaurant. The candidates were George T. Downing of this city, Gray of Pennsylvania, Purse of New York, and Freund, Sanderson, Parker and DeShields of Washington. After six ballots Mr. DeShields, now connected with the Riggs House, was selected.

Prince Leopold has gone to Germany to visit the family of his future bride. His marriage will take place at Winsor, and probably in St. George's Chapel; but this is not settled, as the Queen is at present disposed to command that the ceremony shall be celebrated in the private chapel within the castle, where Princess Christian and, more recently, Princess Frederic were married. It is thought, however that she will yield to the anxious desire of the bridegroom, that he may be married with precisely the same state as the Duke of Connaught.

A stone bridge to be built at Minneapolis bids fair to become one of the notable structures of the world. It will consist of sixteen 80 feet spans and four 100 feet spans, and including the shore piece will have a total length of 1900 feet. It will support two railroad tracks at a height of over sixty feet above the water, and will run diagonally across the river below St. Anthony's Falls. The cost is estimated at nearly $500,000.

PILOTS FOR UNITED STATES VESSELS.

A Washington despatch says that some time ago, Secretary Hunt issued a general order calling particular attention to the naval regulations against the extravagant use of pilots on United States vessels, and as the order seems to have failed of its purpose, the Secretary on Wednesday, in a recent case of this kind, ordered the expense of pilotage to be charged against the officer who incurred it. The Secretary expresses his intention of continuing this policy of charging the officers with all unnecessary pilotage expenses, until the present extravagant custom is abandoned.

BLOCK ISLAND.

We regret to announce the early departure of Dr. J. J. Fox from our midst. Dr. Fox during his four years stay at the island has proved a very efficient physician and has won the esteem of our people generally. He is compelled to leave on account of failing health, going to southern Texas where we trust he may be able to regain his health.

The several additions to the Ocean View Hotel are all nearly closed in. Also the piles for the new bridge extending from the hotel to the Ocean View cottage. All are placed, and the bridge will be completed at an early day.

Rev. Hiram Munger, of Chicopee Falls, Mass., has been holding a short series of religious meetings at Odd Fellows' hall during the past week to attentive and interested audiences. Others are expected the present week and from time to time during the winter.

Schooner Storm, Capt. Stoab, arrived here from Port Johnston, the 10th inst. with 200 tons of coal consigned to Mr. C. C. Ball, a portion of which is for the Block Island Steamboat Company.

John A. Mitchell, living at the centre, met with a painful accident recently while engaged in landing seaweed. His team, suddenly starting, threw him from the load and broke his collar bone. He was attended by Dr. Sweet, of Providence, and is getting along as well as could be expected.

On the night of the 9th inst., thieves entered the fish store of Capt. Nathaniel Willis, near the landing, and carried away their booty, several quintal of salt fish, to the value of about $30.

The lyceum in connection with the Island High School has again revived with an unusual amount of interest from its attendants.

The voting lists for the present year count up about the same as in previous years. There are 89 registered voters and about the usual number of freeholders.

Improvements to the Atlantic Billiard and Bowling Halls to meet the increasing patronage of our summer visitors are already under consideration. MAC.

PORTSMOUTH.

The Town Council and Court of Probate met in regular session on Monday; present, Messrs. Borden, Sisson, Hall, Cory and Anthony.

Probate Business.—The first account of Christopher T. Reith, administrator on the estate of Francis G. Reith, deceased, allowed and ordered recorded. The executor of the account of George B. Anthony, executor of the will of John G. Childs, deceased, was postponed to the second Monday in February. The report of the commissioners on the estate of Joseph Thomas, deceased, was allowed and ordered recorded. The petition of Laura Thomas, widow of Joseph Thomas, for allowance out of the estate of her late husband, was not granted, and the petitioner has leave to withdraw. An instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of John S. Barstow, deceased, together with a codicil, was received and referred with order of notice. Robert W. Anthony, administrator on the estate of Robert Wilcox, deceased, presented his second account, which was referred with order of notice in this town. Geo. R. Hicks, administrator on the estate of Gracia A. Greene, deceased, presented his first and final account, which was received and referred with order of notice in this town. Samuel A. Carter, administrator on the estate of William J. Carter, deceased, presented his account with said estate, which was received and referred with order of notice in this town. The consideration of a petition of Daniel Chase, praying for the appointment of an administrator on the estate of Harriet A. Chase, deceased, was postponed to the second Monday in February.

Council Business.—The following bills were allowed and ordered paid out of the town treasury: Of Lorenzo D. Tallman, for running out road on Ferry Neck and setting up bounds thereto, $12 90; of assessors, for assessing registry taxes, $2; of keeper of Town Asylum, $62 50; of clerk of Public School Committee for their services for 1881-2, $25; of Board of State Charities, $110 41; of dog constable Frederick U. Tallman, for listing dogs, $19 40; of Town Council, for their fees, $2 50. Adjourned.

FIRE.—Monday evening, soon after 7 o'clock, fire was discovered in a stack of straw belonging to Mr. William Alfred Chase, on the Ferry Neck, and it was soon entirely consumed. It is thought that some one took lodgings by the side of the stack the night before, and probably lighted his pipe before leaving in the morning, and thus set fire to the stack, which contained some two tons of straw. Mr. Chase says he would have no objection to any one lodging by his stack if he would not burn it down when morning came.

THE GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

At the annual meeting of the American Geographical Society in New York Tuesday Charles P. Daly, LL. D., was re-elected president, with General George W. Cullum, United States Army, vice president; J. Carson Brevoort, foreign corresponding secretary; George Cabot Ward, treasurer, and W. H. H. Moore, Isaac Bernheimer, Paul B. Du Chaillu, Charles H. Baldwin and D. O. Mills, councillors. Messrs. Herman Oelrichs, Wendell Goodwon, William Parsons, Nelson S. Easton, William Barclay Parsons, Walter D. Edwards, Granville Nicholson, Jacob F. Bamberger, E. Reinhart, William D. Ellis and Dr. Louis F. Sass, Colonel G. L. Gillespie, United States Army, and Dr. Montrose A. Pullen were elected fellows. The treasurer reported that the entire receipts for the year were $9,446, and that the permanent fund is $12,352 57. General Cullen read a paper upon the Acropolis of Athens illustrated by stereopticon views.

LITTLE COMPTON.

Sixty persons were registered as voters in this town.

A regular monthly meeting of the Town Council and Court of Probate was held on Monday. The will of William Palmer was read, and the witnesses being dead, Mrs. Philip Simmons swore to the handwriting of her husband, and Gen. Church and P. F. Little swore to the handwriting of Henry M. Tompkins. It was therefore approved and ordered to be recorded. The petition for administrator on the estate of Hannah Palmer was received and notice approved. Isaac B. Cowen was appointed administrator. Appraisers—George M. Potter, Gideon Wordell, John Hoxie. John B. Cooke was elcted to return inventory and accounts on the estate of Sarah Elliott. Also, L. A. Church on the estate of Lucy Brown. J. B. Cowen's account of the estate of Dennis Grinnell was continued to next court. The petition of J. B. Cowen for leave to sell real estate of Philip C. Brown was granted. It was voted that Nathaniel C. Peckham be authorized to expend a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars in painting the asylum. The following accounts were allowed:—Bill of A. C. Peckham, Keeper of Asylum, $147.78; of Borden Manchester for work on burying ground, $7.50; of P. B. Richmond, Collector, $52; Rouse Pearce, work on highway, $8.62; F. R. Brownell, school census, $10; N. Church, work on Town Hall, $4.50; B. S. Pierce, work on Town Hall, $6.75; George Taylor, work on Town Hall, $7.42; David Wilbor, $5.60.

THE SEAWANHAKA YACHT CLUB.

At the annual meeting of this club held Tuesday evening the following officers were elected:—

Commodore—C. Smith Lee (cutter Oriva).
Vice Commodore—Edward Walsh Humphreys (schooner Albatross).

Notice was given that at the next meeting an effort would be made to change the name of the club to the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club.

The Board of Trustees reported that they had held nine meetings during the year past; that the receipts for 1881 were $4,813.82, which with a balance of $1,697.93 from 1880, made a total of $6,511.75. The disbursements were $4,053.80, leaving a balance on hand for the current year of $2,459.43. There were 202 members in the club at the end of the year, 63 of whom had been elected since the annual meeting of 1881. There are 84 vessels in the fleet, made up as follows:—16 schooners, 40 sloops, 20 open boats, 6 steamers and 2 catamarans. Of these 25 were added during the past twelve months. Mr. Samuel Colgate resigned as trustee.

Commodore Stewart said that in retiring from the office of Commodore he had intended to submit a written report, but upon conferring with his predecessors, determined to make a verbal one instead. The club had been very successful during the past year. Many good men and boats had been added, and during the year to come twice as many more would be brought into the club. "We have been called," continued the Commodore, "by those who want to do us an injury a club of boys, and yet in regard to this very matter of the Madge races I have no hesitation in saying that we took a stand, and consistently and persistently continued in a course that was manly and courageous and frank and honest, which no yacht club in this country had the courtesy or courage to take—(applause)—and it resulted in defeat. I have nothing further to say but this:—A foreigner interested in yachting, at considerable expense, sent to our shores his boat, and that boat, being too small to meet with an antagonist in the New York Yacht Club, was compelled to seek for an opponent, if one could be found, in New York city. We were sailing then under a measurement and time allowance well fitted for our type of boat, but unfortunately for us this boat was in strong contrast to our type. What could we do? Could we simply sit down and say we won't give you a chance, even if you have come all the way from Scotland? Or shall we let the matter rest until we can change our time allowance, or shall we sail you? We sailed him fairly. We were defeated. Our defeat did us no harm. If it has done us harm in any quarter I can only think those are quarters about which we can well afford to have no thought whatever." (Applause.)

The first case for violating the plumbing regulations of Washington, D. C. was up for trial a few days since. The plumber was charged with hav ng failed to ventilate the house drain and soil pipe and with not laying the drain on a bed of concrete. He was also not registered and bonded in the office of the Inspector of Plumbing. In excuse the plumber pleaded ignorance of the new regulations and claimed to have done the work in accordance with the old rules. He was fined $25 by the Court.

AGENCY, 37 BROADWAY.

AN ACROSTIC.
When an aesthetic young lady of town,
Made her way to the shops of renown,
Into Farrow's jewelry store,
Looking his Christmas goods o'er,
There his "too too" low prices she found,
Oh! then she cried, as she dimpled her chin,
Not too fast, Mr. F., but let us begin.

First of all, here are clocks for $1 or more,
And good timekeepers, too, "Are you sure? Are you sure?"
Reliable watches, stem wind and stem set,
Remember! six dollars, the lowest price yet,
Oh! oh! oh! What forks and spoons, and knives for butter;
Why, such ridiculously low prices are "too utterly utter!"

Only look at these napkin rings going at cost,
Plated and silver, with bead work and frost;
Those are just lovely, "too beautifully too;"
In the light they now flash, they are so bright and so new.
Can you think of such prices for gold bands and rings?
It seems that as presents, all are fond of such things,
And these chains and necklets do tell me the price?
Now that will suit Nannie, with locket so nice.

Just look at these charms, these pendants, these pins,
Enough, Mr. Farrow, my head nearly spins,
With the goods, and the prices, your own kind attention,
Each impression I now so aesthetically mention,
Leaves but one choice, with those who want to buy,
Each Christmas as it rolls around when time is on the fly,
Remembrances, and other gifts, "thanks, thanks, most awfully."

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.

Senate.

On motion of Mr. Pendleton, the House resolution for recognition of the services of the late Superintendent Patterson, of the coast survey, was concurred in.

The President pro tem submitted the minute of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, in session at Buffalo last May, condemning polygamy.

A petition of the Omaha Indians, who for five years have held and cultivated their lands in allotment, to grant to each of them a clean title to the land he worked, was referred to the Indian Committee.

Numerous petitions were presented for an amendment to the constitution to prohibit the manufacture and importation and sale of alcoholic liquors throughout the national domain.

A large number of petitions for a commission to inquire in regard to the alcoholic liquor traffic were also submitted.

The Sherman funding bill was taken up, and Mr. Vest addressed the Senate, claiming that the Democratic funding bill of the last Congress would have saved the people $15,500,000 a year in interest on the public debt, and that this was prevented by the Republican party. He said he was not attacking the national banks, but he did attack the vast power vested in them. He condemned the legislation which had given the national banks power to contract or expand the debt at will. He declared that the national banks have grown in wealth and power to such an extent that they do not intend to surrender their charters or their existence. The banks can only continue with the national debt, and the banks do not propose to have the public debt paid off, because it would wipe them out.

Mr. Sherman, replying to Mr. Vest, said that the banks were the creatures of and subject to the will of Congress. The talk of the Senator of Missouri, Mr. Vest, about the vastness of the power of the banks, and their throttling the government, reminded him of a pigmy throttling a giant. The cowardice of capital was proverbial, and the alarm of the bank was so great last year, when the compulsory feature of the funding bill were passed, that many of them began to draw in their circulations. The President vetoed the bill for reasons given in his message, and not because he was coerced by the banks, for they never coerced anybody. There was more cause for apprehension from railroad influence, and from the power of demagogery than from the power of the banks. It was fortunate that the bill of last year did fail, as the banks would not have taken the three per cent.

The President pro tem. announced as the special committee on the rights of women, Messrs. Lapham, Anthony, Ferry, Blair, George, Jackson and Fair.

Mr. Anthony introduced a bill providing for the retirement of any person who has served 50 years or upwards in either house of Congress.

Mr. Anthony stated that on the 19th inst. he would ask leave to submit a resolution of respect for the memory of his late colleague, Ambrose E. Burnside.

Mr. Anthony, from the committee on naval affairs, reported favorably the bill to promote the efficiency of the navy.

House.

Mr. Orth, of Indiana, offered a resolution instructing the committee on civil service reform to inquire into the expediency of providing a mode different from the present for the appointment of the committees of the House, with leave to report at any time. The Speaker stated that the resolution should be referred to the Committee on Rules, and, Mr. Orth demanding the yeas and nays on his proposition, he was beaten, and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Haskell, of Kansas, then rose to a question of privilege, and sent to the clerk's desk and had read the resolution which he failed to have considered yesterday, declaring it to be the fixed and final determination of the Forty-seventh Congress that no person maintaining polygamous marital relations, or teaching or inciting others so to do, is entitled to be admitted to the House of Representatives as a delegate from any territory.

After some debate, the House by a vote of—yeas, 109; nays, 139, determined that no question of privilege was involved in the resolution.

A resolution was adopted calling on the Postmaster General for a detailed statement of the mail routes on which transportation service had been discontinued, decreased, changed, restored, increased, expedited or established since the 4th of March, 1881.

Mr. Garrison, of Virginia, from the committee on the District of Columbia, reported back the bill to incorporate the Garfield Memorial Hospital. Placed on the calendar.

The Speaker laid before the House a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, transmitting a statement of expenditures under the appropriation for the contingent expenses of the Treasury Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1881. Referred.

Also a memorial of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in reference to polygamy. Referred.

GUITEAU'S TRIAL.

Mr. Davidge Begins his Argument Before the Jury.

His Exposition of the Law of Responsibility.

Special Despatch to the Daily News.]

WASHINGTON, Jan 12.—The audience in the court room at the reopening of the Guiteau trial this morning was large and intelligent.

At 10 o'clock sharp the jury and court entered.

Mr. Davidge opened his argument with a disclaimer of any intention to make a set speech. He said he simply desired to render the jury what aid he could in the present solemn duty. The time had come when they were factors in the result. Whatever levity or disorder had characterized the trial there was one sentiment with respect to the conduct of the jury. All commended their dignified deportment, and no doubt they would continue to deserve commendation in the future as in the past.

Mr. Davidge spoke of the different degrees of intelligence necessary for different purposes. A very low degree was needed to establish responsibility for a foul and most unnatural murder like this. The clear and accurate instructions of the judge left no doubt as to their duty. The rule laid down by the court is that the accused is responsible if he knew what he was about when the act was committed, and that it was contrary to the law of the land, unless his will was paralyzed by mental disease. His belief in inspiration or any other belief make no difference in his responsibility, unless the belief is an insane delusion, the result of disease of the brain. If he knew the difference between right and wrong, no belief in inspiration nor disease of the moral faculties will afford an excuse. He may be "crank" or partially insane, yet he is responsible.

IS HOLLY HEAT AN EXPENSIVE LUXURY?

Great heat, and perhaps some vaporing, has been evolved by the Holly steamworks in an unexpected way. Nearly all users say that heretofore the cost of the steam has been reasonable and the heat all or more than could be desired, but since the New Year's bills have been received a few large consumers have groaned and protested. One man says that he values the luxury and is willing to pay well for the security from fire given, the convenience and freedom of this method from dust, but he declares that unless his bill is greatly reduced he will put in boilers in the spring and do his own heating hereafter, as the cost seems exorbitant. Another prominent merchant agrees with him in this, and both are of the opinion that the company can supply them cheaper. It is noteworthy that only in cases in the business part of the city, where meters are used, is there any complaint, those paying by special contract being well satisfied. The heat is charged for by the 1,000 units, each unit representing a certain amount of coal, and two kinds of meters are used. Large buildings have the two-inch meter, and 1,000 units measured by this cost $5.50. For small consumers a one-inch meter is put in and the charge for this is 70 cents per 1,000 units. Superintendent Dwight states that the company are satisfied of the correctness of these meters, having carefully tested them, and that the consumers who complain are crying before they are hurt. He thinks that by the end of the season they will be satisfied, and lays the whole trouble to those blocks in which warmed rooms are rented. The steam is not shut off or lessened at night, as might easily be done, and so more is taken than would be if the proprietor was using his own boiler, and banking the fire at night. The opinion, however, will not content all, and it may yet be a cause of regret to the city that an annual public statement of the company's affairs was not insisted on as the condition of the city's granting the right of way through the streets. The supply of heat has so far been excellent. The superintendent proposes to fix the troublesome boxes along Main street as soon as he can get at them, and he calls attention to the fact that the boxes in other parts of the city do not give off heat.—[Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

A man giving the name of Daniel O'Brien, of Chicago, was arrested in Boston yesterday while assaulting a man in Faneuil Hall square. His victim was, at midnight, at the City Hospital, insensible. O'Brien says the assaulted man is also named Daniel O'Brien, and that he is from Lewiston, Me. He gives no reason for the act.

In the New York Senate yesterday resolutions were adopted reciting that the New York Central railroad avoids paying any taxes upon the ground in Albany that its principal office is in New York, and in New York because its principal office is in Albany, and instructing the Attorney-General to report to the Senate within ten days whether the company can be made to pay the tax.

The next blow-up at Hell Gate will cover a field of about nine acres. The first attempt affected only some two and five-eighths acres.

If a man's biography is called history, why should not a woman's be called her-story?

Hunt's picture of Niagara sold for $10,000, the other day, the purchaser thinking it cheaper to buy the picture at that price than visit the falls and drive around in a hack.

Two well-dressed ladies were examining a statue of Andromeda, labelled, "Executed in terra-cotta." Says one, "where is that?" "I am sure I don't know," replied the other, "but I pity the poor girl, wherever it was."—[Quiz.

A miller in Peru, Ind., fell asleep in his mill and bent forward until his hair got caught in some machinery and was yanked out, and of course it awakened him, and his first bewildered exclamation was:—"Durn it! wife, what's the matter now?"

"What time is it, my dear?" asked a wife, of her husband, whom she suspected of being drunk, but who was doing his best to look sober. "Well, my darling, I can't tell, 'cause you see there are two hands on my watch, and each points to a different figure, and I don't know which to believe."

A farmer, on being asked to write a testimonial for a patent clothes-wringer, produced the following:—"I bought your clothes-wringer and am hugely pleased with it. I bought a jag of wood which proved too green and unfit to burn; I ran the whole load through your wringer, and have used the wood for kindling ever since."

FLIGHT OF HOMING PIGEONS.

At 3.42 o'clock Sunday afternoon 20 homing pigeons belonging in Taunton, Mass., and Boston were liberated by the National Columbarian Society from the corner of Ninth street and Broadway, New York. The birds were numbered and marked for identification. Dispatches received from the above named points by the society show that the birds heard from arrived in the following order: At Boston, bird marked F 347, arrived Monday morning at 7.43; bird 29 at 8.59. The distance estimated, as the bird flies, is 198 miles. At Taunton, bird marked 280 arrived at 7.32; bird 301 at 8 A. M. The remainder of the birds had not been heard of. POOR GIRLS.

The poorest girls in the world are those who have never been taught to work. There are thousands of them. Rich parents have petted them; they have been taught to despise labor, and depend upon others for a living, and are perfectly helpless. If misfortune comes upon their friends, as it often does, their case is hopeless. The most forlorn and miserable women upon earth belong to this class. It belongs to parents to protect their daughters from this deplorable condition. They do them a great wrong if they neglect it. Every daughter should be taught to earn her own living. The rich as well as the poor require this training. The wheel of fortune rolls swiftly round—the rich are very likely to become poor, and the poor rich. Skill to labor is no disadvantage to the rich, and is indispensable to the poor. Well-to-do parents must educate their daughters to work; no reform is more imperative than this.

The Salvator for Invalids and the Aged. An Incomparable Aliment for the Growth and Protection of Infants and Children. A Superior Nutritive in Continued Fevers, and a Reliable Remedial Agent in all Diseases of the Stomach and Intestines.

THIS justly celebrated Dietetic Preparation, is, in composition, principally the GLUTEN derived from the WHITE WINTER FLINT WHEAT CEREAL, a solid extract, the invention of an eminent Chemist. It has not only been highly recommended but certified to by a large number of Chemists and Physicians—representing a very high degree of medical science—as the SAFEST, MOST ACCEPTABLE AND RELIABLE FOOD FOR THE GROWTH AND PROTECTION OF INFANTS AND CHILDREN, and for Mothers lacking Sufficient Nourishment for their offspring.

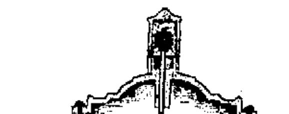

Unlike those preparations made from animal or vinous matter, which are liable to stimulate the brain and irritate the digestive organs, it embraces in its elementary composition—

That which makes strong Bone and Muscle. That which makes good Flesh and Blood. That which is easy of Digestion—never constipating. That which is kind and friendly to the Brain, and that which acts as a preventive of those Intestinal Disorders incidental to childhood.

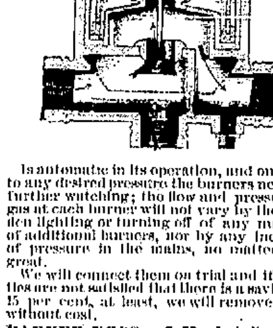

And, while it would be difficult to conceive of anything in Food or Dessert more Creamy or Delicious, or more Nourishing and Strengthening as an aliment in Fevers, Pulmonary Complaints, Dyspepsia and General Debility, its Rare Medicinal Excellence in all Intestinal Diseases, especially in

Dysentery, Chronic Diarrhœa and Cholera Infantum,

HAS BEEN INCONTESTABLY PROVEN.

LEES' GAS GOVERNOR

Is automatic in its operation, and once set to any desired pressure the burners need no further watching; the flow and pressure of gas at each burner will not vary by the sudden lighting or turning off of any number of additional burners, nor by any increase of pressure in the mains, no matter how great.

We will connect them on trial and if parties are not satisfied that there is a saving of 15 per cent, at least, we will remove them without cost.

A BRAVE LADY.

She Endures the Pain of a Severe Surgical Operation Without Taking Chloroform.

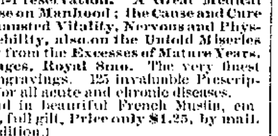

[From the Courier.]

Mrs. Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co., N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years; the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health seriously suffering; indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton. In this terrible strait she consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed. She quietly but firmly said: "All right, doctor, but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will neither cry out or stir." The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word. Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns. To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr. Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleansed the blood and imparted new life to the long-suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women. No family should be without it. Your druggist has it. If not send to Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. d28-4w

Winthrop Wrought-Iron Furnace!

Has been in use for the past seven years, and given entire satisfaction. I offer it to the public as the most desirable furnace on the market. Special attention is called to the new dust-flue damper and revertible flues, that are not found in the other wrought-iron furnaces. The dust-flue damper prevents escape of dust when shaking down; the revertible flues cause the flames to sweep the entire surface of the wrought-iron drum, thereby securing much greater radiation of heat, and consequently a great saving in fuel. Cost less to keep in repair than any other furnaces. Are powerful heaters, with moderate consumption of coal. I have sold over 70 in this city. Sold by
